

More heaven on earth

The Church of Norway is a confessional, open, serving and missionary folk church, witnessing in words and deeds about salvation, freedom and hope in Jesus Christ.

Strategy of the Church of Norway for 2022-2029	1  The church opens up spaces for faith	2  The church is where life is lived	3  The church means more for more people
 The church for the individuals	1.1 Preaches the Gospel to people throughout their whole life	2.1 Strengthens the church as a cultural arena and manager of a cultural heritage for all generations	3.1 Provides a sense of belonging and creates good places for encounter and physical and digital fellowship
 The church in society	1.2 Promotes values that challenge as well as build a good society for everyone	2.2 Contributes to realising the sustainability goals – on a local, national and global level	3.2 Prevents exclusion and explores new ways of being a church
 The church as an organisation	1.3 Through its organisation strengthens a lively, accessible and present folk church	2.3 Interacts with organisational life, other religious communities and churches, public, private and non-profit actors	3.3 Creates a diverse, recruiting and inclusive workplace and platform for volunteering
